Dear Pilgrim:

I am enclosing copy of a letter that I have received from Cairo, together with its enclosure.

Horatio has read the enclosure and he made this comment:
"I suggest the letter not be transmitted to Mr. Clarke. Mr. Clarke came through a year ago, made personal contact with many refugee groups and asked that they correspond directly with him. This has been confusing to the refugees and difficult for established Government agencies in this area".

Sincerely yours,

American Embassy
Cairo, Egypt, June 25, 1949

Dear _____:

Mr. Sula, Charge d'Affaires of Albania, who as you know is still carried on the Egyptian diplomatic list as the representative of H.M. King Zog, called on me this morning without appointment to hand to me the enclosed envelope addressed to Mr. James Franklin Clarke, Division of Research for Europe, Department of State, Washington, U.S.A.

The envelope, as delivered to me, was sealed so that I have not perused its contents. I have also not forwarded it to Mr. Clarke direct, feeling that communications of the sort should be filtered through your office.

In the course of his brief call Mr. Sula inquired if I had had any word from the State Department regarding his proposed travel to the United States. I replied, following your suggestion, that his application had been referred by the Embassy to the appropriate American authorities who had not yet, however, responded to the Embassy.

With best wishes, believe me,

Yours very sincerely,

Jefferson Patterson
